Directors of Country Club Will Meet Tomorrow to Finish Preliminary Steps of Incorporation.

There will be a meeting of the board of directors of the Albuquerque country club tomorrow evening at which several matters of importance will be disposed of.

Articles of incorporation have been prepared, and these will be signed at the meeting. The signed papers will be filed with the secretary of state, and after a certificate of incorporation has been granted the club will be empowered to take title to the land on which the club house is to be built.

Plans for the construction of the house are progressing favorably.
Details of the design are being worked out by the building committee, and indications are that the actual construction work will begin shortly.

Farmers, mechanics, railroad laborers, rely on Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Fine for cuts, burns, bruises.
Should be kept in every home. 25¢ and 50¢.

LINING 'EM OUT

Jake Daubert, who didn't jump to Feds and consequently couldn't jump back, who hasn't been breaking any female hearts or refusing to salute the flag, gets yanked into court just the same. Jacob is part owner of a naughty, naughty semi-professional club that played ball on Sunday in Brooklyn, and outraged Brooklynites are trying to decide whether to shoot him at sunrise or boil him in oil.

New York Giants are playing in mid-season form. They shut out Brooklyn.

Christy Mathewson in a recent article did a little figuring on his art of equaling the big league record of Cy Young, and got sort of discouraged over the prospect. Matty is starting his fourteenth season in the big show.

Says Matty: "My total number of victories in the big leagues at this writing is 228, while Cy was credited with 205 when he retired. He resented his ambition, which was to cross the mark of 200 victories, a feat never before attained by a pitcher in the big leagues."

To reach the 200 mark, if I should be lucky enough to win twenty games a season as an average, it would take me nearly nine years and that's a long time when a man has been in the game for the period I have. I guess Cy's record is safe as far as I am concerned."

Prospects are that Vic Huerta will likewise drop out of the big show long before he attains his 300th victory.

As to hitting, the testimony of one Honus Wagner is not without value.

Honus has one simple golden rule for keeping in the game.

"Any player can last as long as I have," says Wagner. "All you got to do is never allow yourself to get out of condition. I am never out of condition.

These training trips never bother me any.

I never get sore from training."

"That is a mistake most players make—they permit themselves to get out of condition during the winter. I do not think a player should play baseball all winter, but he should take plenty of exercise out in the fresh air—in the open. When I finish playing baseball in the fall I go out hunting. When the hunting season comes I do a lot of walking. Then I play basketball. I practiced a little basketball almost every day down home last winter."

"They say it is strenuous sport, and you are liable to get injured. During the years I have been playing basketball I never was injured. I never heard of a player being seriously injured playing basketball. It is one of the best exercises I know for developing your wind."

"After all, getting your wind is what counts most in all forms of athletics. When you have your wind you can do almost anything. I am never bothered about my wind—whenever you have your wind you are in good condition. You hear a lot about pitchers weakening. They lose their wind—that's all."

Wagner gave that talk to an inquiring recruit the other day.

"Don't you ever get sore—don't your muscles get sore in the spring?" asked the youngster.

"Sure they get sore the first few days," said Honus the Great and Wise. "but because your muscles get sore does not mean that you are out of condition." Wagner replied. "When you play basketball you use different muscles of your body than you do when you are playing baseball. Of course, when you start playing ball in the spring again these muscles get a bit sore, but that wears off after the first few days' practice."

"I know a lot of players who do not take any exercise during the winter time. They make a big mistake in doing this. Training in the spring proves hard on them."

"Manager Dubois will carry twenty men." Headline. That's the way a lot of managers feel about it—and the load seems woefully heavy.

In New York, if it hadn't been for the National league the metropolis would never have had a pennant.

The American leaguers haven't done anything to add to the glory of Gotham.

In Philadelphia, if it hadn't been for the American league the Stoneville fans would still be panting for a flag with an unsatisfied longing.

The Nationals have never ranked the honor to the Revolutionary capital.

The National league is starting its thirty-ninth year. The American league its fifteenth.

In the American league Philadelphia has won ten pennants, Boston eight, New York seven, Pittsburgh four, Brooklyn three, Baltimore three. Providence two and Detroit one. Cincinnati and St. Louis have yet to win a National league flag.

has won the flag five times, Chicago five times, Boston three times and Detroit three times. Cleveland, Washington, St. Louis and New York have yet to win a pennant.

TORRES - SCHAEFER BOUT HAS FANS AT FEVER HEAT

Delegation Clamors for Albuquerque Referee; Many Ladies Expected at the Battle; Odds on Torres.

Torres and Schaefer will today begin training for their ten-round bout at the Elks' theater tomorrow night. Both boys are in perfect shape right now for a meeting, and when they quit conditioning they will be on edge for the clash. Torres will close his training this afternoon at the New Mexico A. C. gymnasium with Bob Graham and Young Sullivan.
Schaefer will wind up his work tonight at the gymnasium.

Interest among the fans in the bout is increasing to torridity. A lot of bets have been made, and more money will be up before tomorrow night. Torres is a slight favorite in the betting.

After Director Mark Levy thought he had found a settlement to the referee question yesterday afternoon, the choice of three men in the ring went straight up in the air. A delegation of fans called on the impressario and urged him to pick an Albuquerque man. Jack O'Leary, manager of Joe Clark, an experienced and notably fair referee had already agreed with the approval of both fighters and their managers, to referee the bout. The fans in the ring served to eliminate O'Leary, who wasn't anxious to officiate, and more money will be up before tomorrow night.

After Levy had received requests from more than 100 of the postcards, an indication of the keen interest in the card, the attendance is expected to be notably heavy when the gong clangs tomorrow night.

The curtain raiser will be fought between Young Patsy Kline and Eddie Roades. Young Duran and Young Sullivan, lion-hearted sluggers, who revel in an exchange of smashes in the face, will wage in for a thrilling semi-windup. Altogether it promises to be the best card Albuquerque fans will have an opportunity to see for many a day.

Tickets to the fight were placed on sale today. Before a ticket was offered
